LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

MORNING EDITION.

FOR HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

GEORGE H. SNOW,

OF WAKE.

ELECTION 1ST THURSDAY IN AUGUST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Supreme Court will adjourn on Saturday.

Peaches are plentiful in market at reasonable prices.

The walls of the new Yarborough House are completed.

When last heard from, McNyder, the laughist, was at Wadesboro.

"Jessie Holmes," the foolkiller, could make a very profitable engagement in these parts.

Crauly, the great North American map "talkest," did a staving business yesterday.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday. Proceedings unimportant.

The good order and quiet of the city is a matter of general remark. We have never known so much of a good thing before.

Doctor V. E. Turner, the skillful and popular dentist, will be absent from the city for two weeks. See his announcement elsewhere.

Miss Carrie Jenkins and Miss Minnie Eddins will delight the Fayettevillians to-night with one of their charming concerts. Proceeds for the benefit of Orphan Asylum.

The body of a dead horse lies immediately on the road side at the bridge, just outside the city limits on the extension of Johnson street, and within a short distance of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Shops. Some body is at fault.

Prof. H. E. Shepherd, of Baltimore, is now in this city. Prof. Shepherd is a native of Fayetteville and son of the late Judge Shepherd, of Fayetteville. Prof. Shepherd has charge of the chair of English Literature in Baltimore College—a most flourishing institution.

IMPORTANT TO VOTERS.—The following instructions to voters as to the mode of voting on the proposed constitutional amendments are issued by the gentlemen whose names are signed thereunto. It is therefore the law:

RALEIGH, N. C., July 22d, 1873.

The undersigned, in reply to inquiries made from different parts of the State as to what are the requisites in submitting the constitutional amendments to the people, will state:

1st. The Sheriff in every county in the State shall open the polls at the several election precincts in his county on the first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open one day, from the hour of 8 A. M., until the hour of 7 P. M., when every person qualified to vote according to the Constitution, may vote for or against each amendment on a written or printed ticket.

2nd. The County Commissioners, or upon their failure, the inspectors of election shall provide for each election precinct—eight ballot boxes, one for each amendment to be voted on.

Each of said boxes shall have attached thereto a written or printed label, designating the amendment to be voted on therein and after the close of the election the Judge shall count out separately the number of votes cast, for and against the amendment.

(See chap. 153, acts 1872-3.)

We would suggest the following as the form of one of the tickets:

Amendment to N. C. Constitution in relation to Public Debt,) chap. 85 acts 1872-3.)

For amendment—(or when so desired, say) against amendment.

Of course each ticket must be prepared to suit each amendment of which there are eight.

THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 23, 1873. NO. 127.

THE EXCURSION TO BEUFORT, on the 16th inst., was participated in by many of the citizens of the State, along the line of the Railroads, from the mountains to Goldsboro. Eighteen passenger cars were densely packed, and it is contemplated that nearly one thousand people were landed at the wharf at Morehead City. There were quite a large number of ladies among the excursionists. About eighty citizens of Raleigh joined the throng on the arrival of the cars at this place, and found no little difficulty in procuring seats. Under the careful supervision of conductor Scruggs, of the North Carolina Road, and Hancock, of the Atlantic Road, not an accident happened to mar the general pleasure of the trip. Before the arrival of the cars at Beaufort Harbor we began to fear that the feeding capacity of the citizens of that vicinity would be taxed beyond their power to supply, but having provided for the occasion, none of the excursionists were without either a place to stay or the choicest food to eat. Of course, those admirably kept houses, the Ocean House, and Atlantic Hotel, in Beaufort, the first under the able and judicious management of the old hoteler, S. R. Street, and W. J. Street, as Clerk, the last under the confined superintendence of those prince of caterers, Pepper and Taylor—were first filled to overflowing, and those who could not obtain entertainment there, were fed and lodged by the citizens of the place. A large number also found entertainment at the Hibbard House and amongst the private dwellings of Morehead City. The entire crowd seemed to enjoy the trip immensely. To many, a view of the old ocean, and a sail upon the waters of the harbor, was a novelty never enjoyed before. Every pleasure boat in the harbor was in demand, and during the stay of the excursionists the waters were alive with these crafts, conveying parties to different points.

During the first day of our stay it was comparatively calm, and many were disappointed in their realization of a sea breeze, but on the second day, a breezy sou'-wester made the waters of the harbor rock like a cradle, and the boats fairly flew on their errands of pleasure.

The larger portion of the excursionists left for their homes on Friday morning, apparently well satisfied with their trip. Some hundred or more, however, remained behind, seemingly loth to leave the delightful breezes of the ocean and the good cheer of their hosts.

The press was represented by G. A. Smith, of the Milton Chronicle, John T. Britt, for the Raleigh Sentinel, W. M. Brown, for the Era, J. D. Uzzell, for the State Agricultural Journal, W. P. Drake, for the Statesville American and S. M. Carpenter, for the Newbern Times.

We are under especial obligations to our host of the Ocean House for courtesies extended us. He is a landlord after the olden style, so genial that every one feels perfectly at home in his house, while every department of the holstrey is in perfect with the promise held out when he first greets you as you enter his door. Quite a large number of visitors, both male and female are guests at the Hotels, and day and night, thereabouts the scene is quite animating. The number is said to be larger than at any time since the war.

One of the "institutions" of the town of Beaufort is the "Club House" of our enterprising friends, Charlotte & Robbins, where you can not only obtain the best of liquors and cigars, but choicest sea coast delicacies, as well, served up in a style equal to any restaurant in the land. A visitor should by all means give them a call. They have "hung their banners on the outer wall," composed of the flags of all nations, which are stretched across the street, and their place of business is not hard to find. They will accept our thanks for courtesies extended,

[A much fuller and more minute account of the excursion was prepared for the DAILY NEWS several days ago, but space could not be given to it. To make amends we now give a condensed portion of it.]

PREACHING IN THE COUNTRY—HOSPITALITY—BAD ROADS, ETC.—We attended the quarterly meeting at Holland's Church, about ten miles from this city, on last Sunday.

Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, Presiding Elder of the Raleigh District, preached the morning sermon. Prayer by the Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, of the Christian Advocate. Mr. Bobbitt's sermon made a decided impression on the congregation, and during the services considerable religligious feeling was manifested.

About one o'clock, the meeting took a recess for dinner. The citizens of the neighborhood, whose hospitality is proverbial, had an abundance of substantials and delicacies, and all were bountiously fed. We did not stay for the afternoon service.

The public road between Raleigh and Holland's church is an indictable nuisance throughout its entire length. It is a disgrace to the county of Wake and to the overseers who have it in charge. Deep holes that can be filled by the expenditure of a little labor, washes, extending the whole width of the road, and which are very destructive to all classes of vehicles; steep and rocky hills abound in endless succession, while rough places which could be easily smoothed over, appear to be tolerated by those to whose care this highway has been committed, for the purpose of vexing and annoying travellers and of making those who are disposed to blaspheme, utter curses and imprecations upon the heads of the road officials.

If the Grand Jury of Wake don't take hold of these overseers, then the law on this subject is a dead letter in this county and the public may as well submit at once.

OFF FOR KITTRELLS.—Prof. W. G. Otey, the barber and French hair-dresser from the Yarborough House, will be absent at Kittrells Springs on Thursday and Friday. His many friends in the State may find him ready to serve them in the shop of Thos. Burr. During the Professor's absence, his shop will be under the charge of Prof. Gilbert and two assistants.

COMMENDABLE LIBERALITY.—From the State Agricultural Journal we copy the following item under the above head, all of which we heartily endorse:

"It is due to Dr. W. J. Hawkins of the Raleigh & Gaston and the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroads, that his efforts in behalf of the State Agricultural Society, and his liberality in connection with the approaching Fair, should be thus publicly acknowledged. As a member of the Executive Committee he is prompt and very regular in attendance at its meetings, and gives much of his time to a personal supervision of the plans and improvements on the new Fair Grounds. (This may be said, also, of the Executive Committee generally, particularly of the Building Committee, Messrs. Lee, Harp, Hicks, W. G. Upchurch, Gen. R. F. Hoke and Len H. Adams, whose duties makes heavy drafts upon their time.) Dr. Hawkins, however, has given much material aid. He has constructed a branch of the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroad, half a mile long, into the Fair Grounds, and has transported free of cost all the timber necessary for the new buildings, etc. In regard to rates of fare, he has given the most liberal terms—transporting articles for exhibition free, and passengers at three cents per mile for the round trip—the terms generally agreed upon by other roads. A bare statement of these facts is the best panegyric we could bestow."

THE GRANVILLE-FRANKLIN INJUNCTION SUIT.—It will be seen from the opinion of the Supreme Court, filed by us yesterday that the two cases from Granville county, one the Commissioners of Granville against W. H. Ballard of Franklin, and the other the Sheriff of Granville James I. Moore vs. W. H. Ballard, have been decided in favor of the defendant Ballard.

The point embraced in these cases is the constitutionality of the act of the Legislature changing the dividing lines between the counties of Granville and Franklin.

Judge Albertson dismissed the injunction granted by Judge Watts in favor of the Commissioners and Sheriff of Granville, whereupon the plaintiffs appealed to the Supreme Court. This tribunal sustains Judge Albertson, holding with him that the act is constitutional.

To the efforts of William K. Davis, Esq., the popular Senator from Franklin, Nash and Wilson is the chief credit due for the passage of the act, and to him the people of Franklin who favor the change are indebted for the same.

THE FAIR WEEK ADVERTIZER.—Two of the energectic young Typo's of the NEWS Job Office have issued a prospectus for a daily paper for the Fair week, which will be devoted principally to advertisers. It will be a neat four-page paper, with a column of original local matter on each page. Each page will contain, besides the column of reading matter, 8 squares for advertisements, which they will sell for the whole week to advertisers at $3 per square, and will distribute gratuitously, 1,000 copies per day on the Grounds. They desire early application for cards, as they wish to commence work on the paper at once.

Apply to E. M. Uzzell or C. H. Harper, Job Department NEWS office, 3rd floor, Stronach building, or to E. C. Woodson, on the street.

THE STEIFF PIANO.—Prominent among the large Piano manufacturers in this country is the magnificent establishment of Charles M. Stieff, No. 9 Liberty street, Baltimore, Maryland. No piano has grown more in popular favor than the justly celebrated Stieff in the past few years. In competition with instruments from all the leading Manufacturies of this country, Mr. Stieff has received more than fifty first premiumn gold and silver medals, a fact that speaks more for its excellence than any praise of ours.

Mr. Stieff is also agent for the celebrated Burdett, cabinet, parlor and church Organs.

By reference to his advertisement in our weekly edition it will be seen that Prof. A. Baumann is the agent for the above instruments in this city, at whose residence they can be seen.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met yesterday morning at the usual hour. All the Justices present except Judge Boyden.

Jonathan E. Cox et al., vs. B. L. Perry, from Guilford. Argued. Mendenhall & Staples and W. H. Bailey for plaintiffs, and J. T. Morehead, Jr. for defendent.

John A. Gilmer, Executor, vs. Nancy McNairy, from Guilford. Argued. Dillard and Battle & Son for plaintiffs and L. M. Scott for defendent.

Hippoch, Glenn & Co., vs. Charles E. Shober, from Guilford. Argued. Dillard, Gilmer & Smith and W. H. Bailey for plaintiffs and L. M. Scott for defendent.

RETURN OF DR. GRAHAM.—We were pleased to see in the city yesterday Dr. George W. Graham and bride, who are en route to Hillsboro, to spend a few days with their relatives.

Dr. Graham, as will be seen from the announcement elsewhere was married In Atlanta on the 15th.

He spent the last week at White Sulpher Springs, Virginia, where he met a number of friends and acquaintances from this and other States.

The many friends of Dr. Graham will unite with us in wishing for his accomplished bride and himself many years of uninterrupted felicity.

"Domestic happiness! Thou only bliss 'Of Paradise that has survived the fall!"

ADJOURNED.—The Legislative Commissioners for the Western North Carolina Railroad, which met in Morganton on Thursday last, have adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman. No part of their proceedings were of a public nature and we cannot tell what transpired.

COLORED TEMPERANCE SOCIETIES.—E. R. Dudley, the State lecturer of the colored organization of Good Templars, gave us a call yesterday. He has just returned from a very successful tour in the West, and is en route to the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad section. He has organized quite a number of lodges, and we are glad to hear that the colored people are taking hold of the movement in earnest, and much good is being accomplished by the energetic canvass of Dudley. We have known the lecturer for some time past, know him to be a good man, and can with confidence commend him to our friends on his new route.

AN INVITATION.—Jno. Nichols, Esq., Grand Master of Masons of North Carolina, has received an invitation to be present on the occasion of the dedication of the new Masonic Temple at Philadelphia, on the 26th of September next. The invitation is accompanied by a photograph of the magnificent structure, which will be an ornament even to Philadelphia. It is situated on the S. E. corner of Broad and Filbert streets, and is built of granite from Massachusetts and Maine, and cost $1,500,000.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col. Thos. B. Long the General Postal route agent of North Carolina, is in the city on business connected with postal affairs.

L. M. Scott, Esq., of the Greensboro Bar, was in attendance on the Supreme Court yesterday.

Bernice Walker, Esq., the Grand Lecturer of Masons for North Carolina, was in the city yesterday in conference with Grand Master Nichols and Grand Secretary Bain.

Cox, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the State Educational Association, to state that there will be a meeting of the Committee at the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, on the third floor of the Capitol next Thursday evening at 5 o'clock. Business of especial importance will come before the meeting and a full and prompt attendance is expected.

NATIONAL HOTEL.—We direct attention to the advertisement of this well known and popular hotel, now under the management of Maj. J. M. Blair, one of the best known landlords in the State. The Major's reputation as a successful hotelest has been long established and the manner in which he runs the National is gaining him fresh laurels.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral services of the infant child of W. G. & Bettie A. Adams, will take place at the residence of J. P. Adams, Esq., this morning at 10 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. A. W. Mangum. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

At 12 m.....78
At 3 p. m.....80
At 6 p. m.....81

The Opinion of the Attorney General on the Vogt Extradition Case.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Attorney General Williams to-day transmitted to the acting Secretary of State, J. C. B. Davis, his official opinion in the case of Vogt, a Prussian citizen, charged with murder, arson and robbery committed in Brussels and a fugitive in the United States. The question suamitted to the Attorney General was, "can the German Government rightfully demand the surrender of the fugitive under the treaty of June 16th, 1853." The Attorney General says that the only point in controversy appears to be the following: "Whether or not according to the true intent and meaning of said treaty, the crimes committed by Vogt in Belgium, were committed within the jurisdiction of Germany." The Attorney General in a lengthy opinion reviews all the facts in the case, and concludes as follows:

"I have carefully read the elaborate opinion of Judge Blatchford upholding the jurisdiction in this case, transmitted in your letter, but with diffidence and regret I am compelled to dissent from his views. They do not appear to me to be sound in principle or sustained by authority.

Able writers have contended that there was a reciprocal obligation upon nations to surrender fugitives from justice, though now it seems to be generally agreed that thisis a matter of comity, but it is to be presumed where there are treaties upon the subject that fugitives are to be surrendered only in cases, and upon the terms specified in such treaties. Conformably to what is above stated I make a negative answer to your question."

More of the Brooklyn Trust Company.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The gossips regarding the Brooklyn Trust Company and the real estate agents of Mr. Mills, do not credit the suicide theory. MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

A Daring Railroad Robbery.

DES MONIES, IOWA, July 22.—An extraordinary and daring robbery on a railroad train was committed last night four miles west of Adair, on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad. At this point there is a sharp curve in the road, and here the robbers placed heavy timbers across the track to thrown the eastern bound passenger train off. The engineer, John Hafferty, saw the obstruction in time to reverse his engine and apply the air brake, but the robbers observing his movement fired at him from their ambush and shot him dead. The engine struck the logs and went off the track into the ditch. It was followed by one of the baggage cars, the others remaining on the track. Several passengers were bruised, but none seriously hurt. The robbers who were maked, after opening and emptying a safe of the Express messenger of its contents rode off on horse back. Among the passengers were thirty Chinese students en route to Springfield, Mass.

More of the Railroad Robbery.

CHICAGO, July 22.—A special dispatch from Des Moines, gives the following account of the attack on the train of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad last night: The train left Council Bluff at 5 o'clock with four coaches and two sleepers in rear, the sleepers being filled with company of aristocratic Chinese on their way to New England College. There were also two baggage and one Express car, in which was the through California mail and express matter, consisting of $2,000 in the Express safe, and three tons of bullion. When about sixty-five miles from Des Moines, at about 8 o'clock, at a sharp curve in an insolated spot, no house within thirty miles in any direction, the train going about twenty-five miles per hour, the engineer, Jno. Hafferty, saw suddenly one rail removed from its place, about sixty feet in front, and instantly reversed the engine and applied the air brake. When in this act, bullets came pelting into the engine like hail. The engine ran into the bank and turned over, throwing engineer John Hafferty and the fireman, the former falling on the latter dead. It is supposed Hafferty was killed by concussion, as no bullet wound was found on his body. The fireman escaped unhurt. The train being very heavy ran about a hundred feet and stopped. The baggage cars doubled were badly smashed. As soon as the train stopped several large athletic men masked in full ku klux style appeared at the express car in which was the conductor, Wm. Smith, superintendent Boyce, the express messenger, John Burges and 3 other persons. They commenced firing rapidly into the car; others yelling "get out of there, damn ye—get out of there." Two bullets passed through the clothes of the conductor. Two grazed the baggage master on the side of the head. Under cover of half a dozen revolvers two of the robbers marched up and down the train threatening to shoot any person who showed his head, saying "get down out of sight damn ye," or we will shoot you. The robbers then took about two thousand dollars of the express money and opened the mail sacks, but took no letters. They mounted their horses and rode off across the prarie in a southern direction, the whole being done in less than 20 minutes. They fortunately did not cut the telegraph wires and Superintendent Boyce hastened to the nearest station and telegraphed in all directions. Engines and a posse from Council Bluffs on the Burlington and other roads to intercept the robbers. Their dress indicated that they were regular bushwhackers. They evidently intended to get the usual express matter by this road route on Monday, but which went through on an extra train Sunday night. The robbers during the day stole a spike bar and hammer from the hand car house at the station they drew spikes at one end of the rails. They secreted themselves several rods away, and as the engine approached pulled them out of place. The promptness of the engineer in reversing his engine and the use of the air brakes saved the passengers from harm. Not one was injured. The track was at once laid around the wrecked cars, and the train resumed its trip arriving here at 7:30 this morning, bringing the dead body of the engineer who resided here, and who leaves a wife and three children.

WEDNESDAY.....JULY 22, 1873.

THE ELECTION, AUGUST 7TH.

The election to be held in this State on the first Thursday in August, on the constitutional amendments, is one of vast importance to our people.

It involves vital changes in the organic law of the State.

For the information of voters, we publish on our fourth page, and shall keep standing until the day of election, the clauses in the Constitution proposed to be altered, together with the eight amendments that passed the Legislature by the requisite constitutional majority, and which are to be submitted to the people for approval or rejection, on Thursday, the seventh day of August next.

All the amendments proposed are necessary and important, and those who favor them should not fail to vote.

OFFICIAL DEMORALIZATION—FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.

In the earlier and better days of our country's history, the instances of rascality in the men who held positions in the service of their country were exceedingly unusual and limited. Official corruption was confined to a very small number of individuals, and the moment proof was adduced in confirmation of the charges preferred, so great was the obloquy visited on the delinquent by all persons irrespective of political predilections, that the guilty victim was compelled to hide himself from public gaze. Even the political organization of which he was a member, however much it may have denounced his aberration or reprobated his guilt, shared with him at least a portion of the popular odium. Nor did the exalted station of the official criminal afford any shelter or palliation for his offence. On the contrary it deepened its enormity in the public mind.

The inroads of corruption have made steady progress on the morals of our leading men within the past few years. These recent inroads have not merely been steady but rapid and alarming.

They have had several characteristic features of modern origin that may well excite the gravest apprehension of all who desire to see the affairs of government administered on a basis of honesty, integrity and good faith.

One of these characteristic features is the organized system of corruption, or combination of government officials to despoil the treasury, or to take bribes as a compensation for giving their official aid and influence in support of certain schemes similar to that of the gigantic Credit Mobilier swindle. Such combinations may well, by reason of the strength and political influence wielded by their participants, excite the fears of the people generally, composed as they are, of men occupying high positions in the affairs of State.

Another feature, and a most melancholy one, in connection with this modernized system of public villainy, is the external exhibition of piety on the part of those who reap the richest harvest of gain from peculations on the public exchequer. Their affectations of Christian virtue are assumed, to disarm suspicion, that they may more successfully compass their venal purposes. Besides the implication of Senators in swindles on the government, Ex-Vice President Colfax and Vice President Wilson have become entangled in a manner that astonishes those who have listened with rapt attention to their invocations in behalf of morality.

The recent disclosures in regard to the Freedmen's Bureau seem to have startled certain parties at the North who thought that this branch of the Government was one of almost immaculate purity. The complaints from the South against that department, when the Bureau was in the full flush of its career of jobbery and corruption, were not only treated with silent indifference but were regarded as the offshoots of Southern disloyalty.

The officers of the Bureau often prostituted their sacred trusts to base and ignoble purposes.

The Bureau was established to guard the rights and interest of the colored people. Millions of dollars of money were granted the Bureau at the solicitation of the hypocritical philanthropists, whose emotions were aroused to a state of phrensy for the welfare of the blacks, for whose enfranchisement they were indifferent except in so far as they could work it out to their pecuniary benefit.

The Bureau was established on a basis peculiarly its own, and had prerogatives such as belonged to no other arm of the public service. Its organization was in some respects purely arbitrary. Gen. Howard was its chief and the encomiums passed on his purity by some of the Bureau officers were highly wrought specimens of fiction. The most extravagant demands of the Bureau were granted with philanthropic alacrity, and the appropriations, instead of accruing to the benefit of the colored race, were boldly squandered, either directly or indirectly in hundreds of cases by the pseudo humane agents of the best government on the planet.

The Bureau was organized on a basis seemingly to afford every facility to its officers from Gen. Howard down to his humblest subordinate, whereby the government and the poor blacks might be robbed to the extent of these officers' philanthropic avarice. The pecuniary venality of the Bureau is another modern species of corruption under the guise of philanthropy.

It takes the science of official rascality in the nineteenth century, to prostitute schemes of benevolence inaugurated by the Government into vehicles of private gain and personal emolument.

LETTER FROM MR. JUSTICE RODMAN—THE CODE COMMISSION.

Our comments on the constitutional amendment abolishing the Code Commission, has brought forward the following response from Hon. William B. Rodman, one of the Justices of our Supreme Court.

We stated that Mr. Bailey and Judge Tourgee had resigned as Code Commissioners, but that we did not know whether Judge Rodman had or not.

It will be seen that Judge Rodman attacks with great severity the intelligence of the Legislature in submitting an amendment on a clause which "is trebly dead." It strikes us if the clause is "surplusage," as Mr. Justice Rodman contends, there is no great blunder after all in striking such surplusage from the Constitution.

The learned writer refers to several wholesome laws prepared by the Commissioners and adopted by the Legislature, which are now in force. Among others he mentions the act relating to the mode of taking deposisions, but he loses sight of the fact that that act was speedily repealed, as it proved too complicated and cumbersome, and the method of taking depositions as provided in the old Revised Code was re-enacted.

The Code of Civil Procedure has been pronounced by one of our most eminent lawyers a "bundle of inconsistencies and absurdities." The dissenting opinions filed in our reports by the Supreme Court Judges, in numerous instances arising under the present laws, abundantly show the confusion and complications in to which our jurisprudence has fallen. This complication has arisen in part from the Code prepared by Judge Rodman and his co-commissioners and in part from the present Constitution, which the Judge also had a hand in framing, as he was a member of the Convention of 1868.

Our Supreme Court Judges have, in a number of cases, shown they disagree in their interpretations of our Constitution, and some of them can, with propriety, be charged with not understanding the law themselves. How can it be expected then, that Legislators, even, if they do represent the intelligence of the State, can see clearly through the waters which have been muddied by judicial investigations? When our highest legal tribunal, in a variety of cases, is divided in opinion upon the intent and construction of Judge Rodman's Constitution, and the modes of practice under Judge Rodman's Code, the General Assembly may well be pardoned for stumbling along the untrodden pathways, over which our judicial lights shed such feeble and flickering rays.

Judge Rodman, although he is regarded as one of the ablest members on the Supreme Court, must bear his share of the responsibility for the chaos and anarchy in which our legal system is enveloped.

The length of his letter precludes us from farther comments to-day. We may continue the subject hereafter:

RALEIGH, July 19, 1873.

To the Editor of the Daily News:

I accidentally saw in your issue of this date, an article which I make the ground for asking to be allowed to vindicate myself from the charge of receiving pay, to which I was not fairly, if legally, entitled. The Constitution, Art. IV, secs. 2 and 3, provided that three Commissioners should be appointed by the Convention to report a Code of the law of North Carolina. By ordinance of 13th March, 1868, (not a part of the Constitution,) Tourgee, Barringer and Rodman were appointed to hold the office for three years. Bailey was afterwards appointed in the place of Barringer. On 29th December, 1870, about two and a half months before the end of their term of duty, the Legislature repealed so much only of the ordinance as gave pay to the Commissioners, and as authorized them to print their bills, leaving that part which imposed their duties in force. (Acts 1870-'71, ch. 16.) Before either I or the Treasurer knew of the Act, he paid me some small sum, I have forgotten how much, beyond what I was entitled to receive at the passage of the Act. As soon as I knew of the Act, I repaid the excess to him, as his accounts will show. I have never asked for or received any compensation since that day, although I was entitled to it up to 13th March, 1871, as the Supreme Court (I, of course, not sitting as a Justice) held in Bailey's case.

This is sufficient for my personal vindication. But I hope you will permit me to add that when I ceased to receive pay as a commissioner, I did not cease the labor which I had gladly undertaken, and which it was an absolute necessity that some one should perform, of bringing the laws of the State out of the chaos which the new Constitution had made of them, of reducing them into harmony with its new provisions, and putting them in a consistent and intelligible shape. This was the task which was imposed on the Code Commission; not a work of mere compilation of scissors and paste, but one which demanded both reading and thought. This great work was by no means complete when the Commission ceased to be. I take pride in saying, that since that time the Legislature has repeatedly done me the honor to pass into law the fruits of my labor. They have been freely offered without a thought of compensation, and I think the people have cause to regret that they have not been in all cases accepted. I will not specify the instances in which the Legislature has approved my individual labor, but considering how much, and with what little reason the Code Commission has been denounced by a portion of the press, and how seldom it has claimed to be heard in its own defense, I think I may be allowed without subjecting myself to the imputation of vain boasting to specify some of the Acts of Assembly of which that Commission or some of its members may claim the credit of framing. It will be seen that the list comprises nearly all the important general Acts from 1868 to 1873; all which have taken a permanent place on our statute book, and which will form the most enduring evidence of the wisdom of those Legislatures. Most of them are not mere compilations; they are as much original as such productions can ever be; as much so, as the Code of Justinian, of Livingston, or of Napoleon, which have made their reputed authors famous.

1. The Code of Civil Procedure, enacted in 1868, and enacted as revised, in 1873.

2. Among the Acts of 1868, chapters 1, 2, 20, (the government of counties,) 35, (Register of deeds,) 41, (Mechanics and laborers' lien,) 43, (Homesteads,) 51, (Suits in the Supreme Courts,) 61, (the management of the Penitentiary.)

3. Among the Acts of 1868-69, chapter 74, to provide for the collection of taxes, a great improvement on the former law, and which although very needlessly, is re-enacted in substance every year, chapter 93, special proceedings, including years provisions, dower, partition, etc. Chapter 113, the settlements of the estates of decedents. Chapter 116, Habeas Corpus. Chapter 117, Mechanic's lien. Chapter 122, partition. Chapter 137, Homesteads. Chapter 150, Landlord and tenant. Chapter 157, County Treasurer. Chapter 158, Mills. Chapter 162, Insolvent debtors. Chapter 164, draining swamp lands; chapter 167, punishments; chapter 168, impeachment; chapter 173, entry takers; chapter 177, contempt; chapter 178, proceedings in criminal cases; chapter 191, forms before Justice of the Peace; chapter 201, guardian and ward; chapter 270, powers of State officers; chapter 275, division fences.

4. Among the Acts of 1869-'70, chapter 169, official bonds; chapter 171, pardons; chapter 203, Treasurer of townships; chapter 227, mode of taking depositions.

5. Among the Acts of 1871-'72, chapter 193, marriages, marriage settlements and contracts of married women; chapter 199, corporations; chapter 213, proceedings by creditors of deceased persons.

6. A Code of Procedure in criminal cases reported, but not yet enacted.

As to your remark that the Commission continued to exist after the Code was completed, everybody knows that it was not completed. The Legislature, after stopping the pay of the Commissioners, appointed Judge Battle to compile the statutes of the State. The largest and the most valuable part of his compilation will be the Acts passed by the Code Commissioners.

Permit me to add a few words about the proposed amendment of the Constitution abolishing the Code Commission, which there seems to be an ignorance which is surprising and positively discreditable. Even you seem to suppose that there is some sense in the proposition. An editor ought to be above such blind credulity in modern Legislators, as to suppose that they read a Constitution before voting to amend it.

The Constitution required the Convention then sitting to appoint Commissioners to report a Code; that is all that it did. The Convention did so, and the clause of the Constitution having been fulfilled ceased to have any further effect. The Legislature was never under any obligation to adopt the reports of the Commissioners. It could have repealed the ordinance appointing them at any time, and it did repeal that part of it which provided for their being paid. The term of the Commissioners expired on 13th March 1871, by the provisions of the ordinance.

The clause is thus trebly dead. Yet two successive Assemblies of the prime intelligence of North Carolina, have voted to cause the people throughout the State, from the sea to the tops of the Blue Ridge, to vote, whether they will strike from the Constitution this innocent and now long since defunct clause. The history of the world can not exhibit a parallel blunder. Verily we need common schools for others than our own children. This record speaks louder of the condition of education in our State, than Dr. Sears' report to the Peabody trustees. Suppose the people shall vote against the amendment, will the Legislature be obliged to appoint new Commissioners? Of course not. And if the clause is stricken out, the Legislature may appoint Commssioners if they please, just as they appointed Judge Battle. As the clause stands in the Constitution it is mere surplusage and without any force or effect whatever. The election as to this clause, is truly, "much ado about nothing."

WM. B. RODMAN.

The editorial in yesterday's Sentinel, entitled "Literary Combat" is a stunner. It quite vanquishes us!

We throw up the sponge and cry out for quarter.

The familiarity which the Editor evinces with the classics is amazing and perfectly astounding! His profound learning justly entitles him to the appellation of "literary luminary."

Henceforth, let this classical genius, who displays such intimate knowledge of the works of Homer, Virgil and Milton, to say nothing of "Sterne, McCaulay, Hume, Bolenbrook" et al, be worshipped as a literary star of the first magnitude. The brilliancy of his wit is only equaled by the simplicity and elegance of his style.

We yield the palm of victory to him without further ado. We cannot hope to cope with one so skillfully panoplied for "literary combat."

In a word, we succumb—we surrender—we are obtained—we are done for!

The Washington Republican in attempting to correct the New York World, concerning alleged errors of statement about the Univeriity of North Carolina, reminds us of a blind man leading one who can see. It is the Republican that is wrong—not the World.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billiousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal; as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the effected part, or a few drops of it in the ears or tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or diseases which require treatment externally, this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the viscera. As an aperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A supply of coal has been ordered for the Wilmington Fire Department.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Gibbons was to have preached in Asheville on Sunday last.

The fines paid in the Wilmington City court last week amounted to $71.

Granges are to be organized in all of the tax precincts of Mecklenburg county.

Three prisoners broke out of the Pitt county jail on the night of the 13th inst.

A new mail line has been opened from Jefferson, Ashe county, to Catawba Station.

A shawl stolen from a party in Wilmington in 1867, was recovered on Saturday morning last.

The saloon of H. Marcus, between Front and Second streets, Wilmington, was broken into on Saturday night and robbed of a number of articles. So says the Star.

The colored man Cooper Whitfield, who was injured last week below Goldsboro by the caving of an embankment on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, died on Sunday of his injuries.

The First Baptist Church, of Wilmington, was robbed on Saturday morning of the mite chest of the Sunday School, containing about $10, and a few other trifling articles.

The Southern Home of the 21st inst. says that the store of S. D. Black, at Cherryville, was burned on the morning of the 15th. The loss is $4,000 and no insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

From the Wilmington Journal, of the 20th inst., we learn that an old negro man by the name of Allen Herring was found dead early Saturday morning in the yard of his own residence, nine miles from that city. He lived by himself, and had evidently been dead some days.

From the Mountain Messenger, of (Jefferson, Ashe county,) we learn that Mr. Charles Todd, of Watauga county, met with a serious accident in a mica mine. The rope hoisting the bucket gave way, causing it to fall with fearful force upon his head. It is thought the skull is not fractured and hopes of his recovery are entertained.

From the Goldsboro Messenger we learn of the following strange coincidence:

"A strange coincidence comes to us from Duplin county. A Mrs. Swinson, died there on the 9th of July, and what is remarkable is that her husband died on the 9th of July, 13 years ago. Our informant states that on the day of her husband's death Mrs. Swinson predicted that she would die on the same date thirteen years after, and so she did. What is more strange, the couple were both born on the 9th of July and also married on the 9th of July."

Says the Goldsboro Messenger of the 21st inst:

"We learn that the Mortgagees of the Fair grounds property have determined to sell the property under foreclosure of their mortgage. If this is done, it will doubtless put an end to the Fair business. Will the citizens of Goldsboro, we mean those who have so far held back permit the enterprise to go by default? Only about $1,000 were needed in addition to the amounts pledged to enable the Directors to hold the Fair. Surely Goldsboro cannot afford to let the Fair die on her hands."

In alluding to the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, the Southern Home, of the 21st inst., says: "While at Concord Court, we gained valuable information from Mr. Jos. A. Cannon. He said that he had heard that remarkable woman, Mrs. Susan Alexander, speak more than fifty times of the Mecklenburg Declaration, and she always placed it on the 20th of May. It will be remembered that Mrs. A. was the lady who nursed so faithfully Captain (afterwards General) Joseph Graham, whom she found weltering in his blood, having been left for dead by Tarleton's dragoons. The mother of Gen. Andrew Jackson, with her son, then a lad of some 14 years of age, had been driven from South Carolina by the British and refugeed for six weeks with Mrs. Alexander, whose husband was then in the army, leaving her at home with one small child."

NEWSPAPERS IN ASIA.—Nothing more distinctly marks the progress of modern ideas in Asia than the spread of periodical literature in the native languages of that continent. The Chinese not only have a large number of newspapers, but also support a monthly magazine, which discusses current subjects of interest. The Japanese are still better supplied with periodical literature, while, according to Chamber's Journal, in India where at the beginning of the present century there were not more than five newspapers, now there are no less than 315, of which 68 are English, 36 in the dialect which passes as English among the natives, and 211 are in the native languages. One of these latter, sold at retail for about half a cent a number, is supposed to be the cheapest newspaper in the world.

Submarine salvage has accomplished many wonderful and interesting feats in modern times. Recently, some divers who were working in the bay of Kjoege, near Copenhagen, discovered the hull of the ship Danebrog, which was sunk on the 4th of October, 1810, in the naval combat between the Swedish and Danish fleets. The Danebrog took fire; to save the crew and the soldiers they would have had to cross the Danish fleet, but Commander Huitfeld, not wishing to expose the other ships to this danger, cast anchor and returned the fire of the enemy till the flames overpowered his vessels, when he perished with his five hundred men. The divers recovered from the wreck of the Danebrog eleven guns, all made in the seventeenth century, and now of great interest as illustrating the history of artillery.

A Catholic daily paper is to be started soon in New York. One hundred thousand dollars has been raised to start with, and more will be forthcoming if necessary. It will be under the supervision of the Archbishop.

Harvey Birch, the hero of Cooper's novel of Spy, really moved, lived and had his being in what is now known as the village of Mamaroneck, in New York State. Cooper himself resided at the same place, having married a sister of the late Bishop Delancy. The Delancy homestead was built in 1795; Delancy's Neck, forming the south side of the entrance to Mamaronneck, is a beautiful property, and remained almost unbroken in the Delancy family until about 1850. At that time it could have been purchased for $100 an acre.

The movement looking towards the formation of a new State out of North Mississippi, West Tennessee and Kentucky is being discussed with considerable animation by the newspapers published in the sections interested. A convention is to be held at Jackson on the 29th inst., when delegates are to be present from every city, town and civil district within the limits of the proposed new State.

From the last annual report of the Auditor-General of Pennsylvania we learn that there are 117 railroads in the State. The total capital stock paid in is $439,864,345, The funded debt is $325,413,597. The length of the main line of roads laid is 4,179 miles. There are 1,618 miles of double track and 1,784 miles of siding. The total cost of roads and equipments was $524,895,-134.

The Shah was exceedingly astonished by the splendor of Stafford House, the residence of the Duke of Sutherland. "Who and what is this Duke? His house is more splendid than the royal palace." "He, your highness, is one of England's great nobles," was the reply. "Too powerful," said his majesty, "I should behead him."

The Supreme Court of Illinois has decided that a Fire Insurance Company has not the right to cancel a policy when fire is approaching the insured property or when danger of destruction is impending. The case arose under the cancellation of a policy on cord-wood while forest fires were burning in the neighborhood

Grant's friends, says the Chicago Times are already figuring tor a third term for their patron. It was Frank Blair who said Grant would never leave the White House while alive. It may be that the General was not very much "excited" when he made the remark.

The total number of deaths from cholera in Gallatin Tend., since May 30, is reported at 109; and 250 in Sumner county, in that Stote. The disease is on the decline there, but is evidently spreading in Indiana and Ohio.

A Pittsburg girl, 13 years old, made her father drunk the other day, stole $190 from him and ran away with a sailor. When overtaken she attempted to suicide.

It is said that Captain Halpin, of the Great Eastern, is to receive, after he shall have raised the 1865 cable, the sum of £10,000 as the reward for his services in cable-laying.

A Galena, Ill., farmer, while running horses with a neighbor, threw his mother out and killed her, but he won the race.

Davy Goggin, colored, who has been twice tried in the Franklin (Va.) county for the murder of another negro has been sentenced to be hanged.

There is a man living in Colorado named Baldwin who has been scalped twice. No wonder he is bald, and it is strange his wind was not taken too.

Iowa laws consider negroes good enough for any office except legislative ones.

An English army officer has been sent to jail for one month for assaulting a cabman while drunk.

It takes 25 cents worth of ice to keep ten cents worth of beef from spoiling until dinner time in Texas.

The merchants of St. Louis have resolved to adhere in future rigedly to the cash system.

The impression is gaining ground that the Centennial Exposition is to be run by a Philadelphia ring.

The sumac harvest in Virginia is very large.

Toledo has the mad dog panic.

I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it as an invaluable remedy in these attacks. It has not failed to give relief in any instance.

WEDNESDAY.....JULY 23, 1873.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

In order that the people may vote understandingly on the amendments to the Constitution, at the ensuing election, we deem it necessary to give in full the eight clauses in that instrument proposed to be altered, together with the alterations themselves.

FIRST: IN RELATION TO THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The present Constitution in Article I, Declaration of Rights, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. To maintain the honor and good faith of the State untarnished, the public debt, regularly contracted before and since the rebellion, shall be regarded as inviolable and never be questioned; but the State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection, or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

This section is amended by striking out the first clause down to and including the word "but," so that the amended clause in Article I will then read:

"Sec. 6. The State shall never assume or pay, or authorize the collection of, any debt or obligation, express or implied, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave."

Another alteration in regard to the public debt is provided for in the same amendment, by striking out section 4, Article V of the present Constitution, which is as follows:

"Sec. 4. The General Assembly shall, by appropriate legislation and by adequate taxation, provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880, it shall lay a specific annual tax upon the real and personal property of the State, and the sum thus realized shall be set apart as a sinking fund, to be devoted to the payment of the public debt."

So that the above section will be entirely stricken out and the amended Constitution will not make it compulsory on the Legislature, by express language, to provide for the payment of interest and principal of the public debt.

SECOND: IN RELATION TO THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Article III, section 1, of the present Constitution names among the other officers of which the Executive Department shall be composed, a Superintendent of Public Works, who shall be elected for a term of four years by the qualified voters of the State, at the same time and places, and in the same manner as members of the General Assembly.

The amendment proposes to strike out the words "Superintendent of Public Works" wherever they occur in the Constitution, thus abolishing that office.

THIRD: IN RELATION TO THE STATE CENSUS.

In the present Constitution, Article II, the following provision is made for taking a State Census:

"Sec. 5. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and at the end of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, after the first session after the return of every enumeration taken as aforesaid, or by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The amendment proposed to this Article is to strike out all that precedes the words, "the said Senate Districts," in section 5, and to strike out the phrase "as aforesaid, or," the parts so stricken out relating to the census, so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 5. The said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly at the first session after the return of every enumeration taken by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators."

The object of this amendment is to do away with the unnecessary expense of taking a State census under the direction of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the same work is done by the national Government.

FOURTH: IN RELATION TO EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION.

The present Constitution, Article V Revenue and Taxation, provides as follows:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State or to municipal corporations, shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements for mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

The amendment proposes to change this section by inserting after the word "instruments," the words "or any other personal property," so that the section as amended will read:

"Sec. 6. Property belonging to the State, or to municipal corporations shall be exempt from taxation. The General Assembly may exempt cemeteries, and property held for educational, scientific, literary, charitable or religious purposes; also wearing apparel, arms for muster, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural implements of mechanics and farmers, libraries and scientific instruments or any other personal property, to a value not exceeding three hundred dollars."

FIFTH: IN RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY.

The present Constitution, Article IX, has the following on the subject of the University at Chapel Hill:

"Sec. 5. The University of North Carolina, with its lands, emoluments and franchises, is under the control of the State, and shall be held to an inseparable connection with the free public school system of the State."

The amendment proposes to strike out this section entirely, thus severing the University from the common school system, and insert the following in lieu thereof, so that the amended Constitution shall read:

"Sec. 5. The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom when chosen shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchises and endowments heretofore in anywise granted to or conferred upon the trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may make such provisions, laws and regulations, from time to time as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of said University."

The following sections of Article IX, relating to the University, are also stricken out:

Sections 13, 14 and 15, relating to the appointment of trustees by the Board of Education, and the officers powers and rights of the trustees. These matters will hereafter devolve on the Legislature, if the amendment relating to the University is ratified.

SIXTH: IN RELATION TO THE SESSIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The present Constitution, Article II Legislative Department, provides as follows:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet annually on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This section is to be amended by striking out the word "annually," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "biennially," so that the section amended shall read:

"Sec. 2. The Senate and House of Representatives shall meet biennially on the third Monday in November, and when assembled shall be denominated the General Assembly."

This amendment also strikes out the word "annually" in section 6, Article III, and inserts the word "biennially," in reference to the requirement of the Governor to communicate to the General Assembly each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon.

SEVENTH: IN RELATION TO THE CODE COMMISSION.

The present Constitution, Article IV Judicial Department, makes the following provisions concerning the Code Commissioners:

"Sec. 2. Three Commissioners shall be appointed by this Convention to report to the General Assembly at its first session after this Constitution shall be adopted by the people, rules of practice and procedure in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing section, and the Convention shall provide for the Commissioners a reasonable compensation.

Sec. 3. The same Commissioners shall also report to the General Assembly as soon as practicable, a code of law of North Carolina. The Governor shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring in this commission."

The amendment proposes to strike out both these sections, thus abolishing the Code Commission.

EIGHTH: IN RELATION TO FEDERAL AND OTHER OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The present Constitution, Article XIV, provides as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one lucrative office under the State at the same time: Provided, That officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities and Commissioners appointed for special purposes, shall not be considered officers within the meaning of this section."

The amendment proposes that this section shall read as follows:

"Sec. 7. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under this State or any other State or Government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit, under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the Militia, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Public Charities or Commissioners for special purposes."

There were eighteen amendments originally proposed, but the eight above specified were all that passed the General Assembly by the requisite two-thirds majority.

These eight amendments are to be submitted separately for ratification or rejection, at the election to be held on Thursday, the seventh day of August. Any person qualified to vote may vote for or against each amendment, with a written or printed ticket with the words "For Amendment," or "Against Amendment." The amendments that receive a majority of the popular vote will be duly ratified. A part or all of them may be either ratified or rejected.
